WEEKLY COURIER.

CAMPAIGN EDITION

For 1876.

To be Issued Three Months, beginning June 23d, and closing September 30th.

A NEWSPAPER, FURNISHED AT LESS THAN COST.

In compliance with requests by many leading Republicans and with a desire to promote the dissemination of Republican principles and to aid in assuring the most decisive Republican triumph in the approaching Presidential election, the Proprietors have decided to publish a Campaign Edition of the WEEKLY COURIER, to be issued from June 23d, immediately after the opening of the Centennial, to the close of the National Convention at Cincinnati, and the Republican State Convention in Bangor, June 22, and the first issue will be issued September 15th, the day of our State election.

The whole will comprise fifteen weekly numbers of the largest paper published in the State, and numbers can be ordered separately as a supplement, and will be furnished to any subscriber or party at the following

RATES:

One Copy, sent Postage paid, 35cts.

EXTRA INDUCEMENTS TO CLUBS.

Three Copies to one address,	$1.00
Seven Copies to one address,	2.00
Fifty Copies to one address,	13.00
One Hundred Copies to one address,	25.00

We have determined to offer the Campaign Edition at the low price solely with a view of bringing to the attention of those who do not now take any Republican paper the correct information upon which to build an intelligent judgment, and we also desire the names and claims of Republicans for nomination to which we may advocate. Particular attention will be given to the discussion of the issues of the campaign, and the Democratic Congress and the Democratic State Convention will receive their full share of attention. Democratic State Conventions will be noticed as they occur, and the platforms and candidates presented will be discussed. Democratic State Conventions will be noticed as they occur, and the platforms and candidates presented will be discussed. In politics the papers will continue to advocate unflinchingly the principles of the Republican party, while claiming to be Independent, in the highest and best sense of the word. Fearless and outspoken in the treatment of all the questions and men, including what they believe to be right, they will not hesitate to publish charges of corruption against public men, but will endeavor to open wide the columns of reputable newspaper correspondence for the discussion of public questions, and they will be found of reasonably impartial character in the treatment of all matters coming before the public.

THE WEEKLY COURIER

also the largest and best Weekly Newspaper in the State. Every number accompanied by a two-page Supplement, making a paper of FORTY-EIGHT columns, or one-half larger than any other Weekly. It is a standard publication, with large and constantly increasing circulation among the most intelligent and thrifty of the population of Eastern Maine, and is unsurpassed as a medium for advertising eagerly sought by the best class of patrons.

LETTER CARRIERS.

All letters are delivered free by carriers who are supposed to be at the office number. Persons should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their names at the office in Dexter, Hampden, Brewer, Orono, Old Town and Milford, can have their letters sent by mail which is much more convenient than to have the stage and may be delivered earlier than if the stage is put on at the office. Carriers make but one delivery daily, the first trip supplying the entire route of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening, and at such other times as may be necessary. Residents of the down-town boxes can have the up-town letters sent to them by mail at the office.

Holidays the Carriers will now will be given for the delivery of letters from 9 to 10 A. M. and from 2 to 3 P. M., but anyone wishing to get A. M. delivery of any irregularities to the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window), when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

Also a seal for the corners of a letter to the order of the signed within thirty days, or less, portion of period, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the face of the envelope, so that in case the letter is undelivered it will be returned to the writer free of charge.

Stamp cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used for prepaying postage. The use of such stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars. Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office.

DOMESTIC POSTAGE.

Letters must be prepaid.—Letters for the Mails in the United States, not over half ounce or single rate. City letters, two cents half ounce or single rate.

NEWSPAPERS.

All newspapers printed in the State of Maine, and sent from the office of publication, to the bona fide subscribers, or regular agents, or to the news dealers, or to the regular publishers, are entitled to be sent through the mails at the following rates:

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY.

Solicitor of Patents.

For Inventions, Trade Marks and Designs,
No. 70 State St., opposite City Hall, Boston.

After an extensive practice of many years, continues to secure patents, also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Reissues, Assignments and all papers for securing inventions in the United States, and all matters connecting with the same promptly attended to, on reasonable terms, with dispatch. Examinations made to determine the validity of inventions, and legal advice in all matters touching the validity and infringements of any patent. Models, Drawings, &c., carefully executed. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States superior facilities for obtaining early allowance of claims, or for ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessary steps to procure a Patent, and the usual general delay there are here saved inventors.

Would refer to persons who have applied for Patents through this Agency in all parts of the United States.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had business in Congress. CHARLES MASON, Late Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring Inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in condition for the most early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents."

"Mr. R. H. Eddy, of Boston, has prosecuted in the Patent Office many cases which have been rejected in the primary examination, and has succeeded in obtaining allowance of such cases in a large majority of instances. I have no hesitation in recommending him to inventors as a gentleman of skill and ability, who will faithfully protect the interests committed to his charge. JOHN TAGGART."

To the District Court of the United States

For the District of Maine. In the matter of Michael P. Curran, Bankrupt. In Bankruptcy.

This is to give notice that on the 20th day of May, A. D. 1876, a warrant in Bankruptcy was issued against the estate of Michael P. Curran, of Bangor, in the county of Penobscot and State of Maine, who has been adjudged a Bankrupt upon his own petition; that the first meeting of his creditors will be held at Bangor, before Josiah H. Drummond, Esq., one of the Registers in Bankruptcy for said District, on the 20th day of June, A. D. 1876, at 10 o'clock A. M., at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their debts, choose one or more assignees of his estate, examine the bankrupt, and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

And notice is hereby given that all persons indebted to said bankrupt are required not to pay or deliver to him or for his use any property belonging to his estate, but to pay and deliver the same to the assignee when appointed, or to the Register in charge, and that the creditors who have proved their debts are required to meet at said time and place and assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate of discharge.

Witness the Hon. Peleg Sprague, Judge of the District Court for said District, and the seal thereof, at Portland, on the 20th day of May, A. D. 1876.
